

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 12-360 (ADC)

JONATHAN PARRILLA-MEDINA,

Defendant.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Defendant Jonathan Parrilla-Medina was charged in an Indictment and has agreed to plead guilty to the only count of the Indictment under a straight plea. Count One charges that, on or about April 24, 2012, in the District of Puerto Rico and elsewhere within the jurisdiction of this Court, the defendant herein, did knowingly and unlawfully possess one (1) machine gun, that is a Glock pistol, black color, Model 23, 0.40 caliber, serial number BDW582US, modified with a CHIP that allows it to shoot automatically more than one shot, without manual reloading, by a single function of the trigger, loaded with twenty-three (23) rounds of 0.40 caliber ammunition, as those terms are defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 921(a)(3) and (17)(A) respectively. All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(o) and 924(a)(2).

On August 28, 2012, defendant appeared before this Magistrate Judge since the Rule 11 hearing was referred by the court. Defendant was provided with the Waiver of Right to Trial by Jury and the Waiver of Indictment, which he signed and agreed upon voluntarily after examination in open court, under oath.

United States v. Jonathan Parrilla-Medina
Criminal No. 12-360 (DRD)
Report and Recommendation
Page No. 2

Defendant indicated and confirmed his intention to plead guilty to Count One of the Indictment, upon being advised of his right to have said proceedings before a district judge of this court.¹ Upon verifying through defendant's statement his age, education and any relevant aspect as to the use of medication, drugs, alcohol or substance dependency, and psychological or psychiatric condition, to ascertain his capacity and ability to understand, answer and comprehend the interactive colloquy with this Magistrate Judge, a determination was made as to defendant's competency and ability to understand the proceedings.²

Having further advised defendant of the charges contained in above-stated Count One, he was examined and verified as being correct that: he had consulted with his counsel, Ignacio Fernández De Lahongrais, prior to the hearing, that he was satisfied with the services provided by his legal representative and had time to discuss with her all aspects of the case, insofar, among other things, regarding the change of plea, the consent to proceed before a United States Magistrate Judge, the content of the Indictment and charges therein, his constitutional rights and the consequences of the waiver of same.

Defendant was specifically apprised by this Magistrate Judge that, upon withdrawing his initial plea of not guilty and now entering a plea of guilty to the charges specified, he was waiving his right to a public, speedy, and a trial by jury constituted by twelve jurors who have to unanimously agree to a verdict. He was also waiving his right to be presumed ¹ The form entitled Consent to Proceed Before a United States Magistrate Judge in a Felony Case for Pleading Guilty (Rule 11, Fed.R.Crim.P.) and Waiver of Jury Trial, signed and consented by both parties is made part of the record.

² Defendant indicated he took Wellbutrin for depression and another medication he did not recall the name in the 24 hours prior to the hearing but the intake of these medications does not affect him to understand the proceedings. Based on defendant's demeanor, his coherent answers to our questions and the assertions of counsel, a determination of competency to understand the proceedings was made.

United States v. Jonathan Parrilla-Medina
Criminal No. 12-360 (DRD)
Report and Recommendation
Page No. 3

innocent and for the government to meet the obligation of establishing his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Furthermore, he was waiving his right during said trial to confront the witnesses who were to testify against him and be able to cross-examine them, through counsel at said trial, as well as present evidence on his behalf. He was also waiving the right to compel the attendance of witnesses and that subpoenas be issued to have them appear in court to testify. Defendant was specifically apprised of his right to take the stand and testify, if he so decided, or not to testify, and no inference or decision as to his guilt could be made from the fact if he decides not to testify. Defendant was also explained his right not to incriminate himself; that upon such a waiver of all above-discussed rights a judgment of guilty and his sentence were to be based on his plea of guilty, and he would be sentenced by the judge after considering the information contained in a pre-sentence report.

As to all the above, defendant provided an individualized and positive acknowledgment of each and every waiver and, with the assistance of his counsel, Fernández De Lahongrais, indicated he freely and voluntarily waived those rights and understood the consequences. During all this colloquy, defendant was made aware that he could freely request from this Magistrate Judge any additional clarification, repetition, or ask questions and that he may consult with his attorney at any given time as to any issue.

Defendant expressed his understanding of the penalties prescribed by statute for the offense as to which he was pleading guilty. The penalty for the offenses in Count One, as charged and as proffered by the government, is a term of imprisonment of not more than ten years (10) years, a fine up to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00), a

United States v. Jonathan Parrilla-Medina
Criminal No. 12-360 (DRD)
Report and Recommendation
Page No. 4

term of supervised release of not more than three (3) years and a special monetary assessment of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

Insofar as Count One as to which defendant already was aware of the maximum possible penalties, defendant was apprised that it was up to the sole discretion of the sentencing court what the sentence to be imposed on him will be.

Defendant acknowledged that by pleading guilty he is acknowledging the firearms and forfeiture allegation contained in the Indictment and that he agreed to forfeit to the United States any property therein mentioned or which was involved or used during the commission of the offense. Defendant indicated he discussed said provisions with his counsel and agreed to the same.

Defendant was specifically informed that any sentencing calculations he could have discussed with his counsel were not binding for the sentencing court, but were only estimates of possible terms of his sentence, which could always be imposed, at the sole discretion of the court, up to the maximum penalties allowed by statute, and dependent upon the information and verification thereof of the pre-sentence report that the court would have before it at the time of imposition of the sentence. The government, defendant, and his counsel also expressed they are aware the Sentencing Guidelines are no longer mandatory and are thus, considered advisory.

The government presented to this Magistrate Judge and to defendant, assisted by his counsel, a summary of the basis in fact for the offense charged and the evidence the government had available to establish, in the event defendant had elected to go to trial, the commission of the offense, beyond a reasonable doubt. Counsel and defendant

United States v. Jonathan Parrilla-Medina
Criminal No. 12-360 (DRD)
Report and Recommendation
Page No. 5

acknowledged the evidence of the government was fully disclosed to them and previously discussed between them. Defendant was able to understand the explanation and agreed with the government's submission. Thus, defendant and his counsel recognized there is a basis in fact for entering the guilty plea.

Having once more ascertained that defendant indicated not being induced to plead guilty, and was entering such a plea because in fact he is guilty, without any promises or predictions being made as to the sentence to be imposed by the court, defendant was informed that parole has been abolished under the applicable Sentencing Reform Act and that any sentence of imprisonment would be served, without him being released on parole. Defendant was additionally informed that prior to sentence, the sentencing judge will have a pre-sentence report and that it would be made available to him, to his counsel and to the government, so that they be allowed to correct or object to any information contained in said report which was not accurate.

Defendant was informed that he can appeal his conviction if he believes that his guilty plea was somehow unlawful or involuntary or if there is some other fundamental defect in the proceedings which was not waived by his guilty plea. Defendant was also informed that he has a statutory right to appeal his sentence under certain circumstances particularly if the sentence is contrary to law. With few exceptions, any notice of appeal must be filed within fourteen (14) days of judgment being entered in the case.

Defendant waived the reading of the Indictment in open court because he is aware of its content and he indicated he availed himself of the opportunity to further discuss same with his attorney and then he positively stated that what was contained in Count One of the

United States v. Jonathan Parrilla-Medina
Criminal No. 12-360 (DRD)
Report and Recommendation
Page No. 6

Indictment and was what he had done and to which he was pleading guilty during these proceedings. Thereupon, defendant indicated he was pleading guilty to Count One of the Indictment in Criminal No. 12-360 (DRD).

This Magistrate Judge after having explained to defendant his rights, ascertaining that he was acting freely and voluntarily to the waiver of such rights and in his decision of pleading guilty under a straight plea, with full knowledge of the consequences thereof, and there being a basis in fact for such a plea, is recommending that a plea of guilty be entered as to Count One of the Indictment in Criminal No. 12-360 (DRD).

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED.

The sentence will be scheduled before Honorable Judge Daniel R. Domínguez, District Judge.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 28th day of August of 2012.

s/ CAMILLE L. VELEZ-RIVE
CAMILLE L. VELEZ-RIVE
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE